

Certified Relationship Program

Continuing Education Credits & Learning Objectives

Students will be able to apply the knowledge and skills learned in the Certified Relationship Program for their own practice as relationship coaches, love coaches, wellness coaches, intimacy coaches, and other professional specialties such as educators, sexologists, counselors or therapists.

The courses in this program meet the requirements of the American Association of Sexuality Educators, Counselors and Therapists (AASECT) and together are approved for 43.5 CE credits. These CE credits may be applied toward AASECT certification and renewal of certification. Please note that AASECT applies these credits on an individual basis, and LU cannot guarantee AASECT membership based on the completion of any LU course or program. Visit AASECT for more details: <https://www.aasect.org/>

This program is also eligible for credit at the American College of Sexologists towards the 300 hours required for membership. Please note professional life experiences are also eligible for academic credit as determined by the discretion of the ACS International board, including researchers, documentary filmmakers, authors, adult toy retailers or other entrepreneurs in the field of sexual health and pleasure. Visit ACS for more details: <http://www.americancollegeofsexologists.org/>

The courses in this program follow SMART learning objectives (Specific, Measurable, Achievable, Realistic, Time-Phased). Consult the learning objectives for each course individually to review its learning objectives.
